EVADING THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

A Washington dispatch says that restaurant keepers there last Saturday, began business under the new district civil rights bill The bill imposes penalties for making any distinction in serving respectable guests on account of color, and requires a conspicuous display in a public house of the list of prices While in some of the restaurants food and drink have been served to all colors alike, others have put up cards with enormous large prices marked upon them, a heavy discount being made in case of white customers so as to accommodate them at usual rates

At one of the leading saloons on the avenue, the prices posted up are as follows Whiskey two dollars per drink, brandy five dollars gin, two dollars, ale one dollar, all mixed drinks, five dollars, all bitters, one dollar The bill of fare is as follows Steak, two dollars, chops two dollars, ham and eggs, three dollars boiled eggs, fried eggs coffee tea bread and butter one dollar each fish of all kinds two dollars, raw tomatoes fifty cents Down town places have printed scale of prices as follows Brandy, $1 per drink, whiskey Holland Gin, Jamaica and St Croix rum Madeira port claret hock, sherry, and Rhine wines Malt liquor, soda and Seltzer waters and imported ales, 50 cents per drink, mixed drinks, 95 cts, cigars 75 to $1 50 each, Champagne and imported wines, $10 A liberal reduction to our regular customers

Among the proposed reforms in our jury system is one by which women accused of crime are to be tried by a jury of their own sex It may be that professor Woss idea of a Divorce Court, which should be composed of "noble matrons and accomplished men" might be extended with advantage in all cases in which a man and woman were on different sides but it would be cruel to have such a jury consist entirely of the sex which used to be the weaker of the two A woman who sins in any way can never hope for any mercy, or for even handed justice from other women They are sure to hate the sinner as well as the sin, and to condemn her with unpitying severity Mrs Fair and Mrs Hyde, if they had been tried by a feminine Judge and Jury, would have been hung long ago, but although the end of justice would have been attained in these cases," in others they would be wholly disregarded

HOW TO COOK A HAM —The late Gen Winfield Scott an acknowledged authority in the culinary art, was of the opinion that few cooks knew how to cook a ham because they did not boil it until soft enough to be eaten with a spoon! A great artist once told the writer never to serve a ham under one year old It was then to be soaked all night in soft water, and if possible in running water to be put on the fire in a large pot of cold water, and slowly boiled at least twenty minutes for every pound it might weigh As for skinning a ham he held it to be an outrage a sacrifice of quality to mere appearances, which no sensible man should be guilty of If your ham is served cold, as is always done in Europe it should be soused in snow or ice water immediately after coming from the pot, because the sudden cold prevents the flow and escape of the juices

DRESS —Orientals do not change their style of dress Among them each nation and tribe has its peculiar costume, as well as its insignia of religious creed These fashions are perpetual centuries seldom bring any marked change It is related of the young King of Siam that having cherished a friendly regard for a lady who had during the reign of his father resided in the royal city, he requested her to send him her likeness This was accordingly done by the hands of a mutual friend and the gift was received with marked pleasure by the monarch But after a long and careful scrutiny he asked with a puzzled air "Has my friend changed her nation or her religion?" It must be one or the other The features are there but the dress! That is not the costume she wore when I saw her last

THE PLATFORM

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time It suppressed a gigantic rebellion emancipated 4 000 000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens rights secured from European powers A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied, despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year, a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress

2 Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude

3 The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office

6 We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7 The annual revenues after paying current debts, should furnish a fixed rate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject" having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital and for labor, the creator of capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot box and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation

13 We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise as a national crime and we witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and ... of the rates of interest upon the balance and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction and the demand of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government

17 It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people and with him at our head we start to day on a new march to victory

The bill imposes penalties for making any distinction in serving respectable guests on account of color, and requires a conspicuous display in a public house of the list of prices. While in some of the restaurants food and drink have been served to all colors alike, others have put up cards with enormous large prices marked upon them, a heavy discount being made in case of white customers so as to accommodate them at usual rates.

At one of the leading saloons on the avenue, the prices posted up are as follows: Whiskey two dollars per drink, brandy five dollars, gin, two dollars, ale one dollar, all mixed drinks, five dollars, all bitters, one dollar. The bill of fare is as follows: Steak, two dollars, chops two dollars, ham and eggs, three dollars, boiled eggs, fried eggs, coffee, tea, bread and butter, one dollar each, fish of all kinds two dollars, raw tomatoes fifty cents. Down town places have printed scale of prices as follows: Brandy, $1 per drink, whiskey, Holland Gin, Jamaica and St Croix rum, Madeira port claret, hock, sherry, and Rhine wines, Malt liquor, soda and Seltzer waters and imported ales, 50 cents per drink, mixed drinks, 95 cts, cigars 75 to $1 50 each, Champagne and imported wines, $10. A liberal reduction to our regular customers.

Among the proposed reforms in our jury system is one by which women accused of crime are to be tried by a jury of their own sex. It may be that professor Woss idea of a Divorce Court, which should be composed of "noble matrons and accomplished men" might be extended with advantage in all cases in which a man and woman were on different sides, but it would be cruelty to have such a jury consist entirely of the sex which is said to be the weaker of the two. A woman who sins in any way can never hope for any mercy, or for even handed justice from other women. They are sure to hate the sinner as well as the sin, and to condemn her with unpitying severity. Mrs Fair and Mrs Hyde, if they had been tried by a feminine Judge and Jury, would have been hung long ago, but although the end of justice would have been attained in these cases, in others they would be wholly distinguished.

HOW TO COOK A HAM.—The late Gen Winfield Scott, an acknowledged authority in the culinary art, was of the opinion that few cooks knew how to cook a ham because they did not boil it until soft enough to be eaten with a spoon. A great artist once told the writer never to serve a ham under one year old. It was then to be soaked all night in soft water, and if possible in running water, to be put on the fire in a large pot of cold water, and slowly boiled at least twenty minutes for every pound it might weigh. As for skimming, a ham he held it to be an outrage, a sacrifice of quality to mere appearances, which no sensible man should be guilty of. If your ham is served cold, as is always done in Europe it should be soused in snow or ice water immediately after coming from the pot, because the sudden cold prevents the flow and escape of the juices.

DRESS.—Orientals do not change their style of dress. Among them each nation and tribe has its peculiar costume, as well as its insignia of religious creed. These fashions are perpetual, centuries seldom bring any marked change. It is related of the young King of Siam that having cherished a friendly regard for a lady who had during the reign of his father resided in the royal city, he requested her to send him her likeness. This was accordingly done by the hands of a mutual friend and the gift was received with marked pleasure by the monarch. But after a long and careful scrutiny he asked with a puzzled air "Has my friend changed her nation or her religion?" It must be one or the other. The features are there but the dress! That is not the costume she wore when I saw her last.

THE PLATFORM

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4 000 000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied, despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year, a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the demand of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to day on a new march to victory.

Supplement.—Owing to the unprecedented demand upon the advertising columns of our Weekly, we this week send to each of our weekly subscribers a copy of to-day's Daily as a supplement. In the Daily will be found a choice variety of miscellaneous reading matter, the latest political intelligence, local news, etc. The Weekley contains the new tariff and revenue law, complete, together with a large amount of reading matter.

CALIFORNIA.—A letter from a former citizen of Decatur, who now resides at San Jose, California, says: "E. O. Smith wrote that the people of California were all for Greeley. Not so; they had a meeting here last night, and there were not enough of them to organize a Greeley club. Wait until you hear from the Golden State next fall. It will roll up a big majority for Grant and Wilson."

NOW LET THEM HOWL.—Our dispatches to-day state that Dr. Wm. Jayne (Trumbull's brother-in-law), has been suspended from the Springfield Pension Agency, and Samuel P. Jones appointed in his place. If Trumbull and his set happen to have any vials of wrath left let them now proceed to uncook them, and pour their contents upon the head of the "corrupt President." They have now another text to preach from, and the howling will be increased accordingly.

HOW THE BUSINESS MEN FEEL.—The Inter Ocean says the feeling of the commercial men on the subject of the presidency was shown on Monday on the Chicago "change" by 129 members of the board of trade voting, of whom 95 were for Grant, and 34 for Greeley. The membership of the board is about 1,300. It is proposed to continue the balloting as occasion offers until all have recorded their votes.

THE leaders of the Democratic party are before the people with this proposition: "The Republican pary we allege to be bad, and request that the Democratic party, which you know to be bad, be given the power now held by the former."

THE account of Greeley's corrupt bargain with the Democrats, begun last October, explains to the Ogdenburg, N. Y. Journal several things which till now have been great mysteries to it. It says: "It would explain his trip to Texas, his speech at Memphis, his eulogy of the southern confederate soldiers, his pilgrimage to Atlanta, his letter to the editor of the Cacaussian, in which he says the mistake of the Democratic party in 1868 was not nominating Salmon P. Chase: his intimation that Mr. Chase would not do in 1872, and his conduct in constantly holding up Gen. Grant as a terror to be repeated if the Democratic party dared to make a straight nomination in 1872.

"MAJOR" NELSON.

We have received a letter from Champaign county, stating that Major Nelson's friends in the east side of the district are working hard to secure Republican votes for that gentleman, representing that he was a "War Democrat," that he went into the army and fought through the late war, etc.

Of course, Major Nelson, who is a gentleman of veracity and fairness, would not make any such representations himself, but lest some of our Republican friends in other portions of the district may be led to believe, though the military title under which our affable friend sails, that he served honorably as a soldier of the Republic, we may as well state, once for all, that Mr. Nelson came here before the war, from the State of Tennessee—a State where everybody who is anybody has a title of some kind to his name. In fact, military titles in that State are all the rage, and do not always signify that their possessors even hold commissions in the cornstalk militia, many gentlemen sporting them merely by common content—being dubbed "General" or "Colonel," or "Major," on account of their clever qualities. (As a passing remark we may say that men in that region seldom bear the honorary title of "Captain"—that being too low a rank to bestow upon a man merely for honor.)

So much for Mr. Nelson's title of "Major," which he brought with him from Tennessee, and which he acquired—nobody knows or cares how. It still adheres to him, and all his friends and neighbors like to address him in that way, because they all respect him, and all desire to honor him—provided that it don't cost them anything more than the mere pronunciation of the word "Major." But when his friends, in their zeal in his behalf, seek to convey the idea that he went into the army and fought through the late war, we humbly beg leave to correct the erroneous statement, and to say that during the entire course of the rebellion he was at his home in Decatur, attending industriously to his private affairs, and voting the Democratic ticket. If he was ever blamed with being a "War Democrat" we never heard of it.

THE PROSPECT IN MISSOURI.

Ever since the opening of the present campaign, the impression has been sought to be conveyed that Missouri is hopelessly lost to the Republican party. When anything is said about it we are pointed to the election of Gratz Brown, two years ago, and to the fact Carl Schurz is in favor of Greeley. The facts that every Republican paper, in the State, (with one exception,) which supported Brown, is now for Grant, and that the Westliche Post, Schurz's paper, has never put up the Greeley ticket, are ignored or passed lightly over. The St. Louis Globe, in discussing this question, says:

We are fully convinced that if the Republicans at once set about the business of complete organization and of earnest, intelligent and hopeful work, this State can be rescued from the control of the disorganizers and revolutionists by whom it has been so wretchedly cursed. The thinking people of this commonwealth have lost confidence in the regency of Schurz, Blair and company, whom they have come to understand as political iconoclasts, ever ready to pull down and overthrow, but never rebuilding any more wisely. The intelligent Republicans of Missouri are unable to see how a beneficial reform is to be effected by means of a conjunction with an organization which, according to Mr. Greeley, is largely composed of the turbulent and lawless elements of society. They have no confidence in such reformers, but believe, on the centrary, that one Democratic administration, such as that of Mr. Greeley must necessarily be, would set the country back a dozen years, and would undo much that has been accomplished by the legislation of the Republican party.

* * * * * *

Public sentiment is rapidly changing in all quarters of the State, and reflecting men are thinking seriously of the disastrous restoration. We insist, then, that if Republicans in every county will immediately set about the work of organization, and that if they will keep on earnestly and hopefully, to the end, ultimate success is clearly within the reach of resolute exertion. It is inconceivable that well informed and well meaning Republicans, clearly understanding the character and tendencies of the Democratic party, should be willing to unite with it in the unreasonable hope that such an organization would make a better administration of the government.

MORE TROUBLE.—The Inter-Ocean of yesterday contains a dispatch from Springfield to the effect that a petition to the Liberal State Central Committee is in circulation there, demanding the removal of Charley Lanphier from the State ticket. The petition sets forth the injury which Lanphier's name is working to the ticket, and claims that he cannot and must not be elected. The petition has already received over two hundred signatures. Who will be the next victim?

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Herald's special from Matamoras, Mexico, confirms the reported death of Juarez by apoplexy. He died on the night of the 18th of July. Gen. Roche directed all national flags and government ensigns to be placed at half mast, in respect to the memory of the deceased. The presidency of the Republic devolves on Lexdo De Tejada, chief-justice of the Supreme Court, and until recently secretary of Foreign affairs in Juarez's Cabinet. Tejada will act as president until Congress fills the vacancy. A rumor prevails that Roche had been defeated at Salmes, six leagues from Monterey.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Anton Rubenstine, the celebrated pianist, is to sail for this port in the Cuba, on the 31st of August, and begin a series of concerts at Steinway Hall, in this city, on the 23d of September.

The French Garde Republicaine band has postponed its departure from the United States for two weeks, and engaged passage on the steamer Washington, August 10th.

The ocean yacht race for Bennett's $1500 challenge cup takes place this afternoon. Madaline and Rambler are the only contestants. The course is from Sandy Hook light ship to Brent's reef, near Newport, and return, a distance of 280 miles.

The World's special from Geneva, says a fresh cause of embarrassment in the arbitration proceedings is England's protest against the consideration of any evidence introduced in the American argument, to show the hostile animus of England during the rebellion of the Southern States. Should the Court decide to exclude evidence of this kind, it is thought few of the American cases could be presented.

At a secret meeting of the board of directors of the Erie road, held on Tuesday, the office of General Superintendent was abolished, and Gen. Given, President, invested with its duties, under the title of General Manager. He will hold this position, as well as Vice-President. It is stated that the new board is about to sue Drew for the hundred thousand shares of stock which he issued, they claim, illegitimately.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Senator Conkling's speech has been the chief topic of conversation to-day, in political circles and among business men. It is regarded as one of the ablest delivered during the campaign, and will have an important bearing on the vote of this State. Part of the morning papers publish it in full, and others gave an extensive synopsis. Many supporters of Greeley acknowledge that it is a complete answer to Senator Schurz, and say there must be an immediate answer to prevent serious damage to their cause.

The Evening Post publishes another long editorial on Schurz's speech. It pronounces it unusually weak in argument, and says it will have very little effect in bringing Republicans to Greeley's support.

The Times, in a double leaded editorial paragraph, says it is authorized by the President to state that Schurz's story about the San Domingo matter is totally untrue, and says: "We challenge him to produce what he calls his proofs of it, and as he cannot do so, we have no hesitation in saying that he has rendered himself responsible before his fellow citizens for an elaborate falsehood."

JERSEY CITY, July 25.—The loss by fire in the Erie railroad machine shops, last night, is now estimated at upwards of two and a half million dollars. All the property, with the exception of the tools, was fully insured. 250 locomotives, valued at $450,000, were burned in the machine shop. The excitement among the workingmen and mechanics who witnessed the conflagration was intense. Many of them lost hundreds of dollars in shop tools, being all the capital they possessed. At daylight this morning the ruins were still smouldering, and casting forth a thick smoke

FROM INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—The Democratic Central Committee nominated John R Cravers, Liberal Republican, Madison county, for Lieut. Governor, in the place of W. C. Depauw, declined.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Baltimore American has received a full account of the disturbance at Raleigh, from which Greeley papers have been trying to manufacture so much capital. Its correspondent says: The supposed Ku-Klux outrages said to have been committed here on the occasion of the great Democratic barbecue, upon two colored marshals of the Democratic procession, named Cross and Craven, turns out to have been nothing more than an ordinary street row, that would occur in the most peaceful cities in the Union. Cross and Craven are the only two colored Democrats in this county, and were the only colored men in procession. Cross is a notorious character, and has been in the State about seven years. He came here as a Methodist minister, but soon fell and became an active ward politician, and soon degenerated into an habitual drunkard and common street loafer. Craven is a man of respectability, but his disaffection grow out of having been dismissed from the police force. These men were accosted by a crowd of boys, on the evening of the procession, who commenced hooting after them, and a little boy, thirteen years of age, ran up to Cross, he (Cross) being drunk at the same time, when Cross drew a razor; another boy in the crowd knocked the razor from Cross' hand, when the police dispersed the crowd, and Cross and Craven went to the Democrtic mass meeting. After the meeting Cross went to a bar-room, got beastly drunk and remained there through the night. Hence the rumor telegraphed over the country by the Associated Press that Cross had been foully dealt with. The boy was, yesterday, bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance at court on charge of assaulting Cross. No men participated in the disturbance, they not thinking Cross or Craven of sufficient importance to be noticed.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Among the officers accepting invitations to be present at the address to the soldiers' and sailors' convention at Pittsburgh, September 17, are Generals Oglesby, Negley, Hawley, Logan, Sargent, McCook, Leggett, Beveridge, Abbott and Fairchild.

The President appointed Samuel P. Jones Pension Agent at Springfield, Illinois, vice Wm. Jayne suspended; C. E. Yost postmaster at Omaha, G. W. Ingalls, Illinois, agent for the Piute Indians in southeast Nevada, A. R. Howbart, Ohio, for the Sacs and Foxes, Iowa.

The President appointed Richard Beardsly, of Indiana, Consul General at Alexandria, vice Butler suspended, and General Julius White, of Illinois, minister resident to the Argentine republic.

Marquis de Noailles delivered to the President his credentials as minister plenipotentiary of the French republic, saying the friendship which united the two nations dated from the glorious epoch of American independence, and that he was charged to cultivate it.

The President replied that the allusion to the vigor and depth of the friendship between the people of the respective countries was based on the indisputable fact with which the Marquis De Noailles' name had an agreeable association, and he would omit nothing tending to make his stay here agreeable.

A BOY engaged about the car works near Carbondale, Pa., was caught in the machinery in such a way that it stopped working and it took two hours to release him. He only survived about half an hour after he was taken out. The most remarkable thing connected with this sad affair was the fact that the boy, although a mute, and speech less for life, actually begged of those about him to get out quick, and prayed to God to spare his life as fluently and distinctly as could any boy.

WIFE whipping has become such a common crime in England, that the government of that country has determined to try what effect a cat-o'-nine-tails will have on brutal offenders. The law was of course enacted for the particular benefit of women. Notwithstanding the fact, the gentle but unreflecting creatures have actually petioned parliament to abolish punishment by flogging. Should that body consent, we may expect to see unrefined and besotted husbands administering daily doses of boot toes, hard fists, sticks and pokers to their better halves. If the women are only true enough to their nature to change their minds, the fickleness will redound to their content.

The Boston Advertiser, quoting from Greeley's speech to the committee from Baltimore who informed him of his nomination, ask's: "What should we think of an apostle of temperance welcoming an army of drunkards who had signed the pledge and were standing on the platform of total abstinence, if he should address them in such a strain as this: "The time will come and I trust in God the opportunity too, when the world will see that you are no less drunkards because you have pursued the course you have, that I am no less a temperance man because I accept your nomination."

The new liquor law has about busted the police courts, and made peace officers ornamental appendages to the city. As a further consequence, we have no "Police Items" to chronicle this week. May the good time long continue.—Champaign Gazette.

Supplement.—Owing to the unprecedented demand upon the advertising columns of our Weekly, we this week send to each of our weekly subscribers a copy of to-day's Daily as a supplement. In the Daily will be found a choice variety of miscellaneous reading matter, the latest political intelligence, local news, etc. The Weekley contains the new tariff and revenue law, complete, together with a large amount of reading matter.

CALIFORNIA.—A letter from a former citizen of Decatur, who now resides at San Jose, California, says: "E. O. Smith wrote that the people of California were all for Greeley. Not so; they had a meeting here last night, and there were not enough of them to organize a Greeley club. Wait until you hear from the Golden State next fall. It will roll up a big majority for Grant and Wilson."

NOW LET THEM HOWL.—Our dispatches to-day state that Dr. Wm. Jayne (Trumbull's brother-in-law), has been suspended from the Springfield Pension Agency, and Samuel P. Jones appointed in his place. If Trumbull and his set happen to have any vials of wrath left let them now proceed to uncook them, and pour their contents upon the head of the "corrupt President." They have now another text to preach from, and the howling will be increased accordingly.

HOW THE BUSINESS MEN FEEL.—The Inter Ocean says the feeling of the commercial men on the subject of the presidency was shown on Monday on the Chicago "change" by 129 members of the board of trade voting, of whom 95 were for Grant, and 34 for Greeley. The membership of the board is about 1,300. It is proposed to continue the balloting as occasion offers until all have recorded their votes.

THE leaders of the Democratic party are before the people with this proposition: "The Republican pary we allege to be bad, and request that the Democratic party, which you know to be bad, be given the power now hold by the former."

THE account of Greeley's corrupt bargain with the Democrats, begun last October, explains to the Ogdenburg, N. Y. Journal several things which till now have been great mysteries to it. It says: "It would explain his trip to Texas, his speech at Memphis, his eulogy of the southern confederate soldiers, his pilgrimage to Atlanta, his letter to the editor of the Cincinnatian, in which he says the mistake of the Democratic party in 1868 was not nominating Salmon P. Chase; his intimation that Mr. Chase would not do in 1872, and his conduct in constantly holding up Gen. Grant as a terror to be repeated if the Democratic party dared to make a straight nomination in 1872.

"MAJOR" NELSON.

We have received a letter from Champaign county, stating that Major Nelson's friends in the east side of the district are working hard to secure Republican votes for that gentleman, representing that he was a "War Democrat," that he went into the army and fought through the late war, etc.

Of course, Major Nelson, who is a gentleman of verneity and fairness, would not make any such representations himself, but lest some of our Republican friends in other portions of the district may be led to believe, though the military title under which our affable friend sails, that he served honorably as a soldier of the Republic, we may as well state, once for all, that Mr. Nelson came here before the war, from the State of Tennessee—a State where everybody who is anybody has a title of some kind to his name. In fact, military titles in that State are all the rage, and do not always signify that their possessors even hold commissions in the cornstalk militia, many gentlemen sporting them merely by common content—being dubbed "General" or "Colonel," or "Major," on account of their clever qualities. (As a passing remark we may say that men in that region seldom bear the honorary title of "Captain"—that being too low a rank to bestow upon a man merely for honor.)

So much for Mr. Nelson's title of "Major," which he brought with him from Tennessee, and which he acquired—nobody knows or cares how. It still adheres to him, and all his friends and neighbors like to address him in that way, because they all respect him, and all desire to honor him—provided that it don't cost them anything more than the mere pronunciation of the word "Major." But when his friends, in their zeal in his behalf, seek to convey the idea that he went into the army and fought through the late war, we humbly beg leave to correct the erroneous statement, and to say that during the entire course of the rebellion he was at his home in Decatur, attending industriously to his private affairs, and voting the Democratic ticket. If he was ever blamed with being a "War Democrat" we never heard of it.

THE PROSPECT IN MISSOURI.

Ever since the opening of the present campaign, the impression has been sought to be conveyed that Missouri is hopelessly lost to the Republican party. When anything is said about it we are pointed to the election of Gratz Brown, two years ago, and to the fact Carl Schurz is in favor of Greeley. The facts that every Republican paper, in the State, (with one exception,) which supported Brown, is now for Grant, and that the Westliche Post, Schurz's paper, has never put up the Greeley ticket, are ignored or passed lightly over. The St. Louis Globe, in discussing this question, says:

We are fully convinced that if the Republicans at once set about the business of complete organization and of earnest, intelligent and hopeful work, this State can be rescued from the control of the disorganizers and revolutionists by whom it has been so wretchedly cursed. The thinking people of this commonwealth have lost confidence in the regency of Schurz, Blair and company, whom they have come to understand as political iconoclasts, ever ready to pull down and overthrow, but never rebuilding any more wisely. The intelligent Republicans of Missouri are unable to see how a beneficial reform is to be effected by means of a conjunction with an organization which, according to Mr. Greeley, is largely composed of the turbulent and lawless elements of society. They have no confidence in such reformers, but believe, on the contrary, that one Democratic administration, such as that of Mr. Greeley must necessarily be, would set the country back a dozen years, and would undo much that has been accomplished by the legislation of the Republican party.

* * * * * *

Public sentiment is rapidly changing in all quarters of the State, and reflecting men are thinking seriously of the disastrous restoration. We insist, then, that if Republicans in every county will immediately set about the work of organization, and that if they will keep an earnestly and hopefully, to the end, ultimate success is clearly within the reach of resolute exertion. It is inconceivable that well informed and well meaning Republicans, clearly understanding the character and tendencies of the Democratic party, should be willing to unite with it in the unreasonable hope that such an organization would make a better administration of the government.

MORE TROUBLE.—The Inter-Ocean of yesterday contains a dispatch from Springfield to the effect that a petition to the Liberal State Central Committee is in circulation there, demanding the removal of Charley Lamphier from the State ticket. The petition sets forth the injury which Lamphier's name is working to the ticket, and claims that he cannot and must not be elected. The petition has already received over two hundred signatures. Who will be the next victim?

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Herald's special from Matamoras, Mexico, confirms the reported death of Juarez by apoplexy. He died on the night of the 18th of July. Gen. Roche directed all national flags and government ensigns to be placed at half mast, in respect to the memory of the deceased. The presidency of the Republic devolves on Lexdo De Tejada, chief-justice of the Supreme Court, and until recently secretary of Foreign affairs in Juarez's Cabinet. Tejada will act as president until Congress fills the vacancy. A rumor prevails that Roche had been defeated at Salnas, six leagues from Monterey.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Anton Rubenstine, the celebrated pianist, is to sail for this port in the Cuba, on the 31st of August, and begin a series of concerts at Steinway Hall, in this city, on the 23d of September.

The French Garde Republicaine band has postponed its departure from the United States for two weeks, and engaged passage on the steamer Washington, August 10th.

The ocean yacht race for Bennett's $1500 challenge cup takes place this afternoon. Madaline and Rambler are the only contestants. The course is from Sandy Hook light ship to Brent's reef, near Newport, and return, a distance of 280 miles.

The World's special from Geneva, says a fresh cause of embarrassment in the arbitration proceedings is England's protest against the consideration of any evidence introduced in the American argument, to show the hostile animus of England during the rebellion of the Southern States. Should the Court decide to exclude evidence of this kind, it is thought few of the American cases could be presented.

At a secret meeting of the board of directors of the Erie road, held on Tuesday, the office of General Superintendent was abolished, and Gen. Given, President, invested with its duties, under the title of General Manager. He will hold this position, as well as Vice-President. It is stated that the new board is about to sue Drew for the hundred thousand shares of stock which he issued, they claim, illegitimately.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Senator Conkling's speech has been the chief topic of conversation to-day, in political circles and among business men. It is regarded as one of the ablest delivered during the campaign, and will have an important bearing on the vote of this State. Part of the morning papers publish it in full, and others gave an extensive synopsis. Many supporters of Greeley acknowledge that it is a complete answer to Senator Schurz, and say there must be an immediate answer to prevent serious damage to their cause.

The Evening Post publishes another long editorial on Schurz's speech. It pronounces it unusually weak in argument, and says it will have very little effect in bringing Republicans to Greeley's support.

The Times, in a double leaded editorial paragraph, says it is authorized by the President to state that Schurz's story about the San Domingo matter is totally untrue, and says: "We challenge him to produce what he calls his proofs of it, and as he cannot do so, we have no hesitation in saying that he has rendered himself responsible before his fellow citizens for an elaborate falsehood."

JERSEY CITY, July 25.—The loss by fire in the Erie railroad machine shops, last night, is now estimated at upwards of two and a half million dollars. All the property, with the exception of the tools, was fully insured. 250 locomotives, valued at $450,000, were burned in the machine shop. The excitement among the workingmen and mechanics who witnessed the conflagration was intense. Many of them lost hundreds of dollars in shop tools, being all the capital they possessed. At daylight this morning the ruins were still smouldering, and casting forth a thick smoke

FROM INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—The Democratic Central Committee nominated John B. Cravens, Liberal Republican, Madison county, for Lieut. Governor, in the place of W. C. Depauw, declined.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The Baltimore American has received a full account of the disturbance at Raleigh, from which Greeley papers have been trying to manufacture so much capital. Its correspondent says: The supposed Ku-Klux outrages said to have been committed here on the occasion of the great Democratic barbecue, upon two colored marshals of the Democratic procession, named Cross and Craven, turns out to have been nothing more than an ordinary street row, that would occur in the most peaceful cities in the Union. Cross and Craven are the only two colored Democrats in this county, and were the only colored men in procession. Cross is a notorious character, and has been in the State about seven years. He came here as a Methodist minister, but soon fell and became an active ward politician, and soon degenerated into an habitual drunkard and common street loafer. Craven is a man of respectability, but his disaffection grew out of having been dismissed from the police force. These men were accosted by a crowd of boys, on the evening of the procession, who commenced hooting after them, and a little boy, thirteen years of age, ran up to Cross, he (Cross) being drunk at the same time, when Cross drew a razor; another boy in the crowd knocked the razor from Cross' hand, when the police dispersed the crowd, and Cross and Craven went to the Democrtic mass meeting. After the meeting Cross went to a bar-room, got beastly drunk and remained there through the night. Hence the rumor telegraphed over the country by the Associated Press that Cross had been foully dealt with. The boy was, yesterday, bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance at court on charge of assaulting Cross. No men participated in the disturbance, they not thinking Cross or Craven of sufficient importance to be noticed.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Among the officers accepting invitations to be present at the address to the soldiers' and sailors' convention at Pittsburgh, September 17, are Generals Oglesby, Negley, Hawley, Logan, Sargent, McCook, Leggett, Beveridge, Abbott and Fairchild.

The President appointed Samuel P. Jones Pension Agent at Springfield, Illinois, vice Wm. Jayne suspended; C. E. Yost postmaster at Omaha, G. W. Ingalls, Illinois, agent for the Piute Indians in southeast Nevada, A. R. Howbart, Ohio, for the Sacs and Foxes, Iowa.

The President appointed Richard Beardsly, of Indiana, Consul General at Alexandria, vice Butler suspended, and General Julius White, of Illinois, minister resident to the Argentine republic.

Marquis de Noailles delivered to the President his credentials as minister plenipotentiary of the French republic, saying the friendship which united the two nations dated from the glorious epoch of American independence, and that he was charged to cultivate it.

The President replied that the allusion to the vigor and depth of the friendship between the people of the respective countries was based on the indisputable fact with which the Marquis De Noailles' name had an agreeable association, and he would omit nothing tending to make his stay here agreeable.

A BOY engaged about the car works near Carbondale, Pa., was caught in the machinery in such a way that it stopped working and it took two hours to release him. He only survived about half an hour after he was taken out. The most remarkable thing connected with this sad affair was the fact that the boy, although a mute, and speechless for life, actually begged of those about him to get out quick, and prayed to God to spare his life as fluently and distinctly as could any boy.

WIFE whipping has become such a common crime in England, that the government of that country has determined to try what effect a cat-o'-nine-tails will have on brutal offenders. The law was of course enacted for the particular benefit of women. Notwithstanding the fact, the gentle but unreflecting creatures have actually petioned parliament to abolish punishment by flogging. If the women are only true enough to their nature to change their minds, the fickleness will redound to their content.

The Boston Advertiser, quoting from Greeley's speech to the committee from Baltimore who informed him of his nomination, ask's: "What should we think of an apostle of temperance welcoming an army of drunkards who had signed the pledge and were standing on the platform of total abstinence, if he should address them in such a strain as this: "The time will come and I trust in God the opportunity too, when the world will see that you are no less drunkards because you have pursued the course you have, that I am no less a temperance man because I accept your nomination."

The new liquor law has about busted the police courts, and made peace officers ornamental appendages to the city. As a further consequence, we have no "Police Items" to chronicle this week. May the good time long continue.—Champaign Gazette.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...The weather is heating up again.

...Business is improving in the city.

...Peaches are beginning to get plenty. They are selling at 75 cents to $1 per box.

...These are lovely evenings; not so hot that you have to 'put the bed-clothes in a refrigerator before you can lie on them.

...J. R. Carrigan is dispensing the fluids at Hackett & Keefe's new saloon. Carrigan seems to be at home in that capacity, and his jocund countenance imparts a cheerful atmosphere thereat.

...Mr. Hillary Beall has placed us under obligations to him with a present of half a bushel of the best apples we have seen this season. Mr. B. has a fine orchard, and grow as good fruit as "any other man."

...L. Burrows, Esq., is going East with his son Lucius to-night. They will visit the principal cities and perhaps one or two of the watering places. Young Lucius has just returned from college at Racine, Wis., where he recently carried off one of the annual prizes.

How it is at Pana.—A few evenings ago Mr. Farley, editor of the Pana Palladium, came to Decatur to renew his faith in the Greeley movement, inasmuch as he could find but little consolation at home. He fell in with some friends here, and not knowing the exact political complexion of the crowd he told some rather unpleasant truths concerning the strength of the Greeley party in Pana. He stated that when the great "Liberal" meeting took place at Mattoon, a short time ago, the faithful at Pana chartered a couple of cars, but when the time came to start only two Greeley men could be found to fill the two cars which had been provided. Some doubts being expressed by those who heard the story, Mr. Farley offered to bet $100 to $10 that there were only two Greeley men in Pana, in which proposition he was enthusiastically backed by Frank Priest, jr. Seeing how positive the Pana men were the bet found no takers.—When we state that Mr. Farley's paper, the Palladium, is one of the best Democratic organs in central Illinois, and that Mr Farley himself is a gentleman of excellent reputation for veracity, we are forced to the conclusion that the Greeleyits are somewhat scarce at Pana.

Off for the Summer.—J. K. Warren and family, Mrs. George S. Durfee and several others, start to-day to spend a month amid the cool breezes and delightful scenery of Mackinac Island, Michigan. Among all the pleasant places of resort which are strung along our great lakes we cannot imagine one that could offer greater inducements to those who want to spend their leisure in coolness and quiet, than the quaint little village of Mackinac—away off from the bustle and confusion of the outside world, with its lovely shade, its beautiful drive along the pebbly beach, its fishing and hunting grounds, its Indians, and above all, its air of somnolence and repose. We wish our friends a prosperous journey, a happy time, renewed health and vigor, and a safe return to home and friends.

Accident.—On Tuesday night a man, whose name is unknown, was about the track at the depot intoxicated. It is supposed he leaned up against a car which was standing alone, and while switching this car was backed up and threw the man down. At any rate, from some cause, he got under the car, as it happened fortunately without his limbs getting under the wheels, but the brake scraped him pretty hard, and he was discovered before he was seriously hurt and pulled out from his perilous situation.

Joab Wilkinson, who is a candidate for the Legislature, will address the people this evening at 8 o'clock, at the southwest corner of the new square. Subject—"Ignorance the passport to the jury-box. Cause the lawyers." Let everybody attend.

Quick Time.—Yesterday, through the kindness of Worth R. Bradley, we received San Francisco and San Jose papers of the 18th.

THE SAME OLD DEMOCRACY.

SOUTH WHEATLAND, ILL., July 24, '72.

Editors Republican: I took notice, in the speech delivered by James C. Robinson at Decatur on the 13th inst., that he is still on the old Democratic style, full of invectives against the Republican party, the President and the office-holders under him. It is but characteristic of the Democrats to indulge in false slang; but that the "Liberals," who profess to have left the Republicans for the purpose of reformation, did fall into the same train of abuse common to the Democrats, is a plain proof that they did not leave the Republicans for the purpose that they claimed to have left them for, but for selfish purposes.—They, both the Liberals and the Democrats, abuse Grant, that any wrong should be done by his officers; not that he does not correct the abuses as soon as they are found out, for they well know that he does dismiss all officers under him and holds them accountable for their wrongs, whenever those wrongs are discovered.

The Democrats, North and South, and the Liberals, want their accusations to be the standard by which the President shall judge his officers; but as Grant has the same opinion that he had at the time he commanded the Union army, that he is capable of managing his own business, he will not take the advice of the Democracy, nor the few disappointed and sore-headed Republicans. Many of the persons holding office under Grant are of those who helped to put down the rebellion, and of course are objectionable to the Democrats.

The Democrats at all times hold up Andrew Jackson as a model President; and it is a well-known fact that during his administration, that according to the extent of territory, number of inhabitants and amount of business, there was a larger proportion of frauds committed then than there has been during that of President Grant.

Judge Trumbull's symbol, on the 13th inst., at Decatur, in comparing the present affiliation of the Liberals with the Democrats, was quite refreshing, when with such soft and feeling language he portrayed the sympathy that the great fire in Chicago produced on the various factions that were in a political warfare before the fire, and then applied it to the coming together of the Democrats and Liberals. Truly there must be great and many tears of repentance shed by such men as Governor Palmer when they are forgiven by such men as James C. Allen, Forrest, Wade Hampton, Jeff Davis, &c., for the great wrong they did in helping to save the Union from utter ruin, by those august gentry, the leaders of the Democracy, north and south. F.

Circuit Court.—The Court assembled at 1½ o'clock yesterday afternoon, and proceeded with the selection of a jury. The counsel exhausted the 74 men who were summoned outside of the regular panel, and two men were selected from among that number, viz: Jos. C. Dickson, R. H. Carter. The Court then directed the Sheriff to summon 120 more, and select them from the country, and the Court adjourned until 8½ o'clock this morning.

This morning they assembled and proceeded with the examination of those summoned to serve as jurymen. After trying about 70, the following were accepted by the counsel on both sides in addition to those already chosen: Jos Pickle, Geo. Outen, Wm. Thomas and E. F. Case. The Court then adjourned until 1½ o'clock this afternoon.

The counsel for the prosecution are M. B. Thompson, District Attorney, assisted by H. Crea, Esq. For the defense, Messrs. A. B. Bunn and John R. Eden.

The International Peace Jubilee Pianos.—BOSTON, June 18.—History, perhaps, furnishes nothing equal to the awful and subline grandeur of this musical festival. It can only be spoken of in general terms, as the strongest words can only furnish the faintest possible realization of it. The grand organ was the leading instrument of power. But we noticed that the superb Hallett & Davis Piano was the leading instrument of the kind, of sweetness and power, as handled by such an artist as Franz Bendel, being easily heard in the midst of the grand orchestral accompaniment in every part of the vast building. This was so in piano as well as fortissimo tones.—Special Dispatch to the Chicago Daily News.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...The weather is heating up again.

...Business is improving in the city.

...Peaches are beginning to get plenty. They are selling at 75 cents to $1 per box.

...These are lovely evenings; not so hot that you have to 'put the bed-clothes in a refrigerator before you can lie on them.

...J. R. Carrigan is dispensing the fluids at Hackett & Keefe's new saloon. Carrigan seems to be at home in that capacity, and his jocund countenance imparts a cheerful atmosphere thereat.

...Mr. Hillary Beall has placed us under obligations to him with a present of half a bushel of the best apples we have seen this season. Mr. B. has a fine orchard, and grow as good fruit as "any other man."

...L. Burrows, Esq., is going East with his son Lucius to-night. They will visit the principal cities and perhaps one or two of the watering places. Young Lucius has just returned from college at Racine, Wis., where he recently carried off one of the annual prizes.

How it is at Pana.—A few evenings ago Mr. Farley, editor of the Pana Palladium, came to Decatur to renew his faith in the Greeley movement, inasmuch as he could find but little consolation at home. He fell in with some friends here, and not knowing the exact political complexion of the crowd he told some rather unpleasant truths concerning the strength of the Greeley party in Pana. He stated that when the great "Liberal" meeting took place at Mattoon, a short time ago, the faithful at Pana chartered a couple of cars, but when the time came to start only two Greeley men could be found to fill the two cars which had been provided. Some doubts being expressed by those who heard the story, Mr. Farley offered to bet $100 to $10 that there were only two Greeley men in Pana, in which proposition he was enthusiastically backed by Frank Priest, jr. Seeing how positive the Pana men were the bet found no takers.—When we state that Mr. Farley's paper, the Palladium, is one of the best Democratic organs in central Illinois, and that Mr Farley himself is a gentleman of excellent reputation for veracity, we are forced to the conclusion that the Greeleyits are somewhat scarce at Pana.

Off for the Summer.—J. K. Warren and family, Mrs. George S. Durfee and several others, start to-day to spend a month amid the cool breezes and delightful scenery of Mackinac Island, Michigan. Among all the pleasant places of resort which are strung along our great lakes we cannot imagine one that could offer greater inducements to those who want to spend their leisure in coolness and quiet, than the quaint little village of Mackinac—away off from the bustle and confusion of the outside world, with its lovely shade, its beautiful drive along the pebbly beach, its fishing and hunting grounds, its Indians, and above all, its air of somnolence and repose. We wish our friends a prosperous journey, a happy time, renewed health and vigor, and a safe return to home and friends.

Accident.—On Tuesday night a man, whose name is unknown, was about the track at the depot intoxicated. It is supposed he leaned up against a car which was standing alone, and while switching this car was backed up and threw the man down. At any rate, from some cause, he got under the car, as it happened fortunately without his limbs getting under the wheels, but the brake scraped him pretty hard, and he was discovered before he was seriously hurt and pulled out from his perilous situation.

Joab Wilkinson, who is a candidate for the Legislature, will address the people this evening at 8 o'clock, at the southwest corner of the new square. Subject—"Ignorance the passport to the jury-box. Cause the lawyers." Let everybody attend.

Quick Time.—Yesterday, through the kindness of Worth R. Bradley, we received San Francisco and San Jose papers of the 18th.

THE SAME OLD DEMOCRACY.

SOUTH WHEATLAND, ILL., July 24, '72.

Editors Republican: I took notice, in the speech delivered by James C. Robinson at Decatur on the 13th inst., that he is still on the old Democratic style, full of invectives against the Republican party, the President and the office-holders under him. It is but characteristic of the Democrats to indulge in false slang; but that the "Liberals," who profess to have left the Republicans for the purpose of reformation, did fall into the same train of abuse common to the Democrats, is a plain proof that they did not leave the Republicans for the purpose that they claimed to have left them for, but for selfish purposes.—They, both the Liberals and the Democrats, abuse Grant, that any wrong should be done by his officers; not that he does not correct the abuses as soon as they are found out, for they well know that he does dismiss all officers under him and holds them accountable for their wrongs, whenever those wrongs are discovered.

The Democrats, North and South, and the Liberals, want their accusations to be the standard by which the President shall judge his officers; but as Grant has the same opinion that he had at the time he commanded the Union army, that he is capable of managing his own business, he will not take the advice of the Democracy, nor the few disappointed and sore-headed Republicans. Many of the persons holding office under Grant are of those who helped to put down the rebellion, and of course are objectionable to the Democrats.

The Democrats at all times hold up Andrew Jackson as a model President; and it is a well-known fact that during his administration, that according to the extent of territory, number of inhabitants and amount of business, there was a larger proportion of frauds committed then than there has been during that of President Grant.

Judge Trumbull's symbol, on the 13th inst., at Decatur, in comparing the present affiliation of the Liberals with the Democrats, was quite refreshing, when with such soft and feeling language he portrayed the sympathy that the great fire in Chicago produced on the various factions that were in a political warfare before the fire, and then applied it to the coming together of the Democrats and Liberals. Truly there must be great and many tears of repentance shed by such men as Governor Palmer when they are forgiven by such men as James C. Allen, Forrest, Wade Hampton, Jeff Davis, &c., for the great wrong they did in helping to save the Union from utter ruin, by those august gentry, the leaders of the Democracy, north and south. F.

Circuit Court.—The Court assembled at 1½ o'clock yesterday afternoon, and proceeded with the selection of a jury. The counsel exhausted the 74 men who were summoned outside of the regular panel, and two men were selected from among that number, viz: Jos. C. Dickson, R. H. Carter. The Court then directed the Sheriff to summon 120 more, and select them from the country, and the Court adjourned until 8½ o'clock this morning.

This morning they assembled and proceeded with the examination of those summoned to serve as jurymen. After trying about 70, the following were accepted by the counsel on both sides in addition to those already chosen: Jos Pickle, Geo. Outen, Wm. Thomas and E. F. Case. The Court then adjourned until 1½ o'clock this afternoon.

The counsel for the prosecution are M. B. Thompson, District Attorney, assisted by H. Crea, Esq. For the defense, Messrs. A. B. Bunn and John R. Eden.

The International Peace Jubilee Pianos.—BOSTON, June 18.—History, perhaps, furnishes nothing equal to the awful and sublime grandeur of this musical festival. It can only be spoken of in general terms, as the strongest words can only furnish the faintest possible realization of it. The grand organ was the leading instrument of power. But we noticed that the superb Hallett & Davis Piano was the leading instrument of the kind, of sweetness and power, as handled by such an artist as Franz Bendel, being easily heard in the midst of the grand orchestral accompaniment in every part of the vast building. This was so in piano as well as fortissimo tones.—Special Dispatch to the Chicago Daily News.

WEAKENING.

Every indication at present goes to show that the Greeley movement has spent its force, and that from now until election day it will continue to weaken and wane. A few weeks ago Democrats and "Liberals" were seemingly jubilant over what they alleged to be the certainty of Mr. Greeley's election. Upon the streets, in the railroad trains, in social gatherings, and indeed in every place where men congregate, Republicans had to listen to the loud boastings of the Greeleyites, who lost no opportunity of blowing their bugles in anticipation of victory. It may be that all this boasting was but a part of the general plan of the campaign, which was to be fought out on the principle that "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth," but whether this was really the case, or whether the confident tone assumed by the Greeleyites actually had a well-founded hope at the bottom of it, certain it is that they have very materially lowered the pitch of their voices, and now sing a much more moderate tune.

A little thought will convince anyone that there is a very good reason for this change of tactics. After the Cincinnati Convention the "Liberals" admonished us to wait until the Republicans were convinced of the utter rottenness of their leaders by the action of the Philadelphia Convention. We were assured that legions of Republicans were only hanging on to the party with the hope that somebody else than Grant would be nominated at Philadelphia, and that these same legions would march over in a body to the Greeley ranks as soon as that convention was over. Well, Grant was nominated at Philadelphia, and there was still no perceptible addition to the "Liberal" party. Then we were told to wait until after the Baltimore Convention should indorse Greeley, which endorsment would convince dissatisfied Republicans that the Democrats were acting in good faith, and would be followed by the long prophesied ground swell. The Baltimore Convention met, performed its part of the contract entered into months before, and then adjourned, but the ground swell failed to make its appearance, and, worse than all, in its stead broke out a formidable rebellion in the Democratic ranks.—Everywhere through the country Democrats were found repudiating the disgraceful alliance which their leaders had entered into with the most unreliable and dangerous element of the Republican party. They spurned indignantly the idea that their party, in order to succeed, must abjectly get down in the dust and lick the feet of those who had for so many years been their chief revilers, and their discontent and dissatisfaction thereupon took on the shape of open revolt. Seeing the want of unanimity with which the nomination of Greeley was received by Democrats, vast numbers of Republicans who had tacitly given in their adherence to the "Liberal" movement began to realize the utter hopelessness of success, and willingly returned to their allegiance to the old party of freedom and progress.

Seeing all these things, as they cannot help but be seen, it is no wonder that the Greeleyites find their spinal columns becoming weak, and that they have ceased to boast of their expected victory as loudly as they did a month ago.

GRANT AND WILSON CLUBS

The ground swell of the approaching elections this fall is beginning to be felt, and the campaign is opening in earnest. Political affairs have assumed such a form that people can begin to see the way clearly. It is to be a straight old fight between the Republicans and Democrats, with greatly improved differences in favor of the Republicans.

The Democratic party is demoralized by attempting to steal the Republican platform, and Republicans for candidates. They are most welcome to take them, for it will kill their party. It introduces disgust and discord into the party; and though the party may go through the form of running an opposition ticket, there will be no heart in it.

Where the contest is anything like even, it is unavailing for any partially disorganized party, like the present Democracy, to enter upon a national campaign against a harmonious and habitually victorious party, like the Republican party, moving in confidence, and representing a majority of the people. Very large and enthusiastic Grant and Wilson clubs are now forming everywhere. Iowa is in a blaze already, and Indiana is showing intense interest.

DAN VOORHEES, the Greeley candidate for Congress, in his speech accepting the Democratic nomination, said the Fifteenth Amendment "was never legally ratified and is a fraud, in my individual judgment, upon the American people."

Life is hardly respectable if it has no generous task, duties or affections that constitute a necessity for existing. Every man's task is his life-preserver.—Emerson

SOMETHING ABOUT YOURSELF.

Supposing your age to be fifteen years, or thereabouts, you can be figured up to a dot. You have 160 bones and 500 muscles; your blood weighs 25 lbs; your heart is nearly five inches in length, and three inches in diameter; beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 times per day, and 30,722,200 times per year. At each beat, a little over two ounces of blood is thrown out of it; and each day it receives and discharges about seven tons of that wonderful fluid. Your lungs will contain a gallon of air, and you inhale 24,000 gallons per day. The aggregate surface of the air cells of your lungs, supposing them to be spread out, exceeds 20,000 square inches. The weight of your brain is three pounds; when you are a man it will weigh about eight ounces more. Your nerves exceeds 10,000,000.

Your skin is composed of three layers, and varies from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch in thickness. The area of your skin is about 1,700 square inches, and you are subjected to an atmospheric pressure of fifteen pounds to the square inch. Each square inch of your skin contains 3,500 sweating tubes, or perspiratory pores, each of which may be likened to a little drain tile one-fourth of an inch long, making an aggregate length in the entire surface of your body of 201,163 feet, or a tile ditch for draining the body almost forty miles long.

WE receive many letters from correspondents who are worthy of trust, reflecting on some peculiarities in the personal habits of B. Gratz Brown, the candidate for vice president. We have thus far suppressed these letters, but if the facts they disclose are true these facts ought to be brough be ore the public. The nation does not want to see a man hibitually intemperate in the President's chair. His recent illness is ascribed to his own imprudence, and it is said that the complaint known as the "Gratz Brown Gripes" is well known in the bar rooms of the city. At Cincinnati he was said to be often seen in a condition not very becoming to a candidate for high office. Perhaps Horace Greeley had better take him in hand, and get him to confine himself for a few weeks to the use of Chappaqua water.—New York Times, July 17.

A CURIOUS and perhaps important discovery has been made recently by M. Kletzinsky, a Viennese Professor. Noticing that persons sick with the small-pox were often visited by flies, he placed near an open window of the hospital a saucer filled with glycerine. Soon the flies gathered, and were caught like birds with glue. In their endeavors to free themselves, all the foreign matter which had adhered to them was left in the glycerine, which was at once submitted to the action of a microscope.—It was found that this substance which was chemically pure when offered to to the flies, was full of strange cells, very like those seen on persons attacked by the small-pox, but never on flies This discovery proves conclusively that these parasitical insects are not only filthy, but can be very dangerous means of spreading contagious diseases.

A NEW English charge d'affaires was lately presented to the Mikado of Japan. He was a very corpulent gentleman. Upon being desired to squat on the floor in Jap. fashion, whether on account of his Falstaffian proportions, or because he considered it derogatory to a representative of "Her Most Gracious and Christian Majesty," is not known, but the fact was, that he utterly refused to do so. He finally left the presence with head erect and straight "on his pins," and no doubt immediately sat down to indite an indignant letter to Earl Granville. It is said the Japanese ambassador, Terashima, will not be received at the Court of St. James until this little difficulty is settled.

GERRITT SMITH AND THE DAVIS BAIL BOND.—Liberal and Democratic orators class Gerritt Smith with Greeley as one of the bailers of Jeff Davis Speakers at the ratification meeting, on Tuesday evening, asserted this, and though the statement was disputed by gentlemen in the crowd, they persisted in asserting. These gentlemen find it convenient to have short memories.—Gerritt Smith's name does not appear upon the bond. Mr. Greeley was the only Republican who signed the bond.—Toledo Blade.

The Louisville Ledger of the 13 inst. has at the top of the first page three immense engravings, representing Horace Greeley, Gratz Brown and P. T. Barnum—all in a row. The former it denominates as the "Democratic candidates" for the Presidency and vice presidency, respectively, while Barnum is given in his own proper character as a showman. A glance at the pictures will convince that Barnum is altogether the best looking man of the trio. In the same issue the Ledger gives in its support to all three of these candidates

AN unscrupulous person writes as follows to the New York Commercial Advertiser:

"They tell this story of Dr. Henry, who is staying at the Grand Union The other day he was called upon to attend Gratz Brown in New York, when Gratz facetiously and foolishly remarked 'It is seldom, Doctor, that you are so honored as to be called to attend a Vice President?' 'Oh, no,' replied the Doctor, 'I attended Vice President (?) Frank Blair in '68, but your case is a good deal worse than his.'"

A BERLIN letter of the 29th ultimo says: The cholera is fast making its way from the interior of Russia to the Prussian frontier.

HORACE GREELEY'S BARGAIN WITH THE DEMOCRATS.

The Binghamton (N. Y.) Republican, which has several times spoken of a definite arrangement made a year ago between Mr. Greeley, acting for himself, and Horatio Seymour on behalf of the Democratic party, in relation to Mr. Greeley's nomination for the Presidency, now puts its charge in the following specific and positive form:

"1. That Horace Greeley agreed, in October, 1871, on his own behalf to be a candidate for President of the United States if Horatio Seymour and the Democratic leaders would support him, and held a correspondence on that subject, of which one letter was dated October 4, 1871. That Mr. Greeley formally recognized his agreement, and communicated the fact of the Democratic proposition to Reuben E. Fenton, who consented to give his assistance to the scheme.

"2. That Horatio Seymour, who was regarded as himself a candidate, and some of the Democratic leaders subsequently agreed to give Mr. Greeley their support conditionally. That Horatio Seymour communicated with Waldo Hutchins on this subject, with reference especially to the Cincinnati Convention. That Horatio Seymour acknowledged the correspondence of himself and Hutchins in a letter dated May 1, 1872, three days before the Cincinnati Convention was held.

"3 That Waldo Hutchins responded, and became a delegate to that convention. That the fact of Democratic coalition was well understood by some of the delegates to the Cincinnati Convention; and that the expectation of this Democratic support aided or secured Mr. Greeley's nomination.

"Now we propose, if the points we make here are denied by any of the persons named, to publish the testimony of the holder of the correspondence we have mentioned—which correspondence we have seen, in the handwriting of Horace Greeley and Horatio Seymour, including accounts of interviews with Horace Greeley and Horatio Seymour and others; such testimony showing, with the evidence of the letters and amply corroborative evidence, the mode in which Mr. Greeley and Mr. Seymour were brought together, and embracing much information of detail. We shall give Mr Seymour and Mr. Greeley a witness of their own, who has been provided with his certificates of character by themselves, and whom they do not dare to discredit. Shall we have a response?"

A young man in New York was the victim of misplaced confidence a short time ago. He was particularly sweet on a very young girl, and called one evening having previously paid her several visits The girl's parents thinking both too young to begin to keep company with each other, gave a gentle hint to that effect—first, by calling the girl out of the room and sending her to bed, and secondly, by the lady of the house bringing in a huge slice of bread and butter spread with jam, and saying to the youth, in her kindest manner, "There take this and go home; it is a long way and your mother will be anxious."

THERE was quite an interesting little occurrence at the Tolono Convention on the 17th. The Liberals and Democrats went into general convention, and as soon as the thing commenced Col. Young, of Arcola, saw that something was wrong, that there was chicanery—He then made a few remarks, to the Democrats, calling them villains, scoundrels, and everything else he could think of, and withdrew from the convention entirely, forbidding the use of his name at all. Mr. Young was one of the Liberal delegates from Douglas county—Tuscola Journal.

THE MONARCH MASTODON OF THE ROAD!

Requiring Seventy cars to transport it from stand to stand.

So stupendous is the collection brought together by its experienced projectors, that FOUR IMMENSE PAVILLIONS are required to exhibit this combination of TWELVE SHOWS IN ONE: one for the Menagerie, a second for the Museum, a third for the Aviary, and a fourth for the Circus, and one price of admission admits the ticket holder to the four tents. In consequence of the constant jam to see this monster combination, two more tents have been added, and

SIX MAMMOTH PAVILLIONS

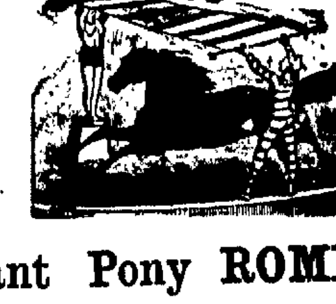

Are duly erected, so that all may see the only six tent show on earth, and the only one that runs a DOUBLE CIRCUS TROUPE!

THE ELEPHANT BISMARK!

Formerly the property of the Viceroy of Egypt, imported to this country expressly for this great combination, and is introduced at each performance by the world-renowned trainer, Robert Ellis. A drove of BACTRIAN CAMELS, accompanied by native attendants, in full unique dress of East Indiamen. TWO LIONESSES AND LITTER OF CUBS, one with two and the other with four young, only three and nine months old, playful as kittens, and so harmless that ladies handle them without fear. A BEAUTIFUL SABLE ANTELOPE, the only one ever imported to America, and the most difficult of all fleet-footed animals of Africa to capture. A RARE SPECIMEN CHIKARI, King of Alaska Forests, a strong, ferocious and magnificent animal, just arrived from Sitka. The culminating of the Zoological entertainment is the daring performance of the Intrepid Lion King, HERR ELIJAH LENGEL, with his twenty-foot pen of trained Lions, Tigers, and Panthers, at every exhibition, afternoon and night. He is confessed the greatest animal performer living.
